

Let Me Out of Here!

The end of lockdown has been announced with schools open, closely followed by non-essential shops and pubs. Hopefully, everyone will have had their haircut and back in the gym by the end of June.

The news has led to an abundance of job vacancies being advertised, with over 3,500 in Co Durham on one search engine alone. The apprenticeship website <https://www.gov.uk/apply-apprenticeship> has 445 vacancies within a 30 mile radius of Durham. So it's time to get job ready.

The Bread and Butter Thing brings its affordable food service to three new County Durham locations

Food surplus redistribution charity, The Bread and Butter Thing (TBBT) is working with Durham County Council to expand its innovative, sustainable affordable food service across the region with three new hubs opening in March.

TBBT started its County Durham operation in Peterlee last November where it has currently served 862 members, with collective savings totaling £21,500 in its first 14 weeks (November 17th - February 16th).

For just £7.50, TBBT members' shopping bags are filled with a minimum of £35 worth of items made up of quality fresh food and store cupboard staples from supermarkets.

People interested in using TBBT affordable food service need to register as members and should contact TBBT at hello@breadandbutterthing.org or text 07537 416040. There is also a sign up form and more information at www.breadandbutterthing.org
